Ahh...dear sweet Cindy. She will be so missed. What a great friend and mentor. Cindy and I started our friendship with a mutual real estate transaction in the 80's and hit it off immediately. She taught me so much. Gary and I are so very very sorry for the loss of this wonderful wife, mother, sister and friend.

Doreen Van Ooyen – 2024-01-21 11:53:11

Cindy was a beautiful person inside and out. She loved everyone and brought such joy and yummy bagels to our office. She will be missed.

I am so sorry to hear of your loss. A beautiful woman gone too soon

Richard Poinsette – 2024-01-21 11:52:45

So sorry for your loss. What a wonderful woman Cindy was. She will be missed by all of us who knew her.

Jess, Dave, and Evie – 2024-01-21 11:52:30

Cindy was so warm and giving; an admirable and inspiring woman. We treasure our memories of her and she'll always live in our hearts.

Michelle Kucharski – 2024-01-21 11:52:18

I met Cindy at the credit bureau, she trained me and we hit it off instantly. Then we got reacquainted at Bishop Dwenger when our boys played LAX together. Cindy always had a smile on her face and her laugh was infectious. My prayers are with your family during this difficult time.

Joan Feichter – 2024-01-21 11:52:02

Joyce: So sorry for your loss of Cindy. This is not how a parent life's order is. May God bless you with Graces to bear this very sad cross. Our children were all entwined not only as cousins but neighbors and school pals. I live in Ohio now and Janet is close by. She just went down to Florida for two weeks and the only one that could drive me to the Mass. My prayers and thoughts are with you at this time. love Joan Gausepohl Feichter.

Thank you for your wisdom and friendship over the years. Rest in peace, my dear friend

Tina Putt – 2024-01-21 11:51:37

My deepest sympathy and heartfelt prayers to Cindy's entire family. Cindy was my very first friend, that met in 1st grade at St. Judes. We laughed a lot (and got into lots of trouble). I will always remember how easy it was to make Cindy laugh. Laughter and Love to you my friend. I hope you're telling Jesus some good jokes.

Margaret Sklenar – 2024-01-21 11:50:11

Cindy was a shining example of how to treat others with kindness and respect. I had the pleasure of working with her in the real estate industry. She will be truly missed. She was a leader and well respected in the real estate community. My heartfelt sympathy to Cindy's family.

Carolyn Fultz – 2024-01-21 11:49:51

Joyce, Dan, Keith, Jeff and Brian, I am sorry to hear of Cindy's passing. It was a blessing to grow up on Dodge Ave next door to the Butler family. I have many fond memories of birthday parties at your house, swimming in your pool, and just playing outside in the neighborhood. Praying your faith will help you through this difficult time. Brandee (Reiling) Garcia – 2024-01-21 11:48:03

Mark, I am so saddened to hear of Cindy's passing. I remember you both being my dad's neighbors off of Vance Avenue. I remember babysitting for you and I remember your dog, Alex. Cindy would call me B. I loved that. I remember your family coming to my wedding reception in 2002, that was a very nice surprise! Cindy helped me get my loan on my first house. She was always kind to me. You and your children are in my prayers.

Vickee Harding – 2024-01-21 11:47:51

Oh Cindy my friend, I am going to miss our Wednesday chats in the office. I am going to miss your beautiful smile, I am going to miss your infectious laugh. I am going to miss YOU. You were as beautiful on the inside as you were on the outside. Our conversations started about something work related, but by the end, we were sharing laughter and our talks always ended talking about our kids and families. My prayers are lifted for your family, her favorite people in the whole world. You have definitely left us all better people for knowing you. Rest in peace.

Nancy Cady – 2024-01-21 11:47:41

I looked to Cindy as a friend, as a mentor and as a voice of reason at times when I just needed one. She was always there....offering advice, encouragement, insight and love. Her wisdom shined and I will miss her being a phone call away. My deepest sympathies go to her family and friends. We were so fortunate to know her.

Karen Reinig-Gouloff – 2024-01-21 11:47:26

Many great memories of Cindy through our high school years, May you find comfort in the outpouring of love from family and friends. ((Hugs))
