There are so many memories over the years. I remember when Amya was going into labor with KY and you thought she was kidding. Remember all the get togethers. All the smiles, cries, when you would take KY fishing. He loved that so much. You were an amazing dad and you impacted our lives. We will always love and miss you while keeping you alive through all the great memories

Man this is a crazy life, but U could anything once you set ur mind to it. I remember all the times when u and Amaya lived next on Oakland Street. The snowman u and Ky made. How loving you were with ur kids. When u would take Ky fishing and he come to tell everyone about it. I know u loved ur kids and family so much. I don't believe in my heart that this was intentional. U would never miss a day of those kids life. I'm definitely going to miss you. We had a good friendship. And with Amaya. Even tho it was rough going some days. I hope u are at peace now . Just kn that everyone on earth is waiting to see I again. And that everyone is lost without you. All our love to u. Schannon & Emma The neighbors on Oakland Street.
