When my husband Tim and I moved into our first home we were blessed to call Stewart, Erin and their three lovely children our next door neighbors. Stewart was always outside either practicing baseball with Noah or taking care of his lovely yard. He had such a bright demeanor and was someone that radiated joy even amid the simple, every day tasks of life. We will miss seeing him at mass but are thankful for our faith that allows us to know he will be celebrating with us from our eternal home.
